

YOUR GIFT BUILDS FAMILIES

"Without the scholarship, my daughters would not be able to participate and I would struggle financially. I currently live in government-assisted housing and do not have the finances to pay for childcare.

"I know this won't be my situation in the future... It has been a blessing for my children to be a part of the YMCA. I look forward to watching them develop and grow, and know that their participation in the Y gives them great resources to be amazing women in the community."

-P.G., After School parent

Y programs connect youth to a larger community and their best selves. They learn skills, fair play, teamwork and grow personally. Y teen programs focus on leadership development, intervention and prevention, service-learning and cross cultural awareness.

ROBOTS & BUGS,

When kids are given the resources for enriching experiences, the chance to interact with caring mentors, and practice respect and cooperation, it's called youth development

Wellness in spirit, mind and body enhances our interactions with others. This is healthy living

LOVE FOR PEACE & GREENS,

We believe in being a good neighbor, friend and steward, and that we are all in this together. We call it social responsibility
